INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SUMMARY REPORT

AFTER COMPLETING THE FORM, CONTINUE THE SUMMARY REPORT ON 8 1/2 x 11 INCH WHITE PAPER.

ALLEGATIONS

In narrative form, state how, when, where, and by whom the complaint was received. State the date, time, and location where the incident occurred, and summarize the complaint. If more than one allegation is made, enumerate each allegation as follows:

- No. 1 (Summarize the allegation)
- No. 2 (Summarize the allegation)

2. EVIDENCE

Number and attach all statements, reports, and other evidence gathered, on the lower right hand corner. The Complaint Log number must also be entered on the lower right hand corner of each attachment. Following are numbered (EXAMPLES ONLY).

Attachments:

- No. 1 Face Sheet - Yellow
- No. 2 Letter of complaint from victim
- No. 3 Statement of victim
- No. 4 Statement of witness (give name)
- No. 5 Report of member (give name)
- No. 6 Statement of member (give name)
- No. 7 Progress report of investigator (give name)
- No. 8 Copy of certified letter to reporting party
- No. 9 Copy of Alcoholic Influence Report (accused)
- No. 10 General Offense Case Report, R.D. _____
- No. 11 Signed Sworn Affidavit

3. INVESTIGATION

In narrative form, indicate the fact-finding processes followed and the information ascertained as a result of the investigation. Whenever reference is made to an attachment, indicate the attachment number.

4. FINDINGS

Each allegation must be classified as either of the following:
Unfounded - Exonerated - Not Sustained - Sustained - No Affidavit.

If the classification is "Sustained," indicate the rule number violated, the context of the rule, and how the rule was violated by the member.

Example: Allegation No. 1. Unfounded
Allegation No. 1. Sustained - Violation of Rule 12,
Failure to wear the uniform as prescribed, in that on 27 Feb 84
the accused was found to be wearing a non-prescribed short sleeve shirt.

Even though the original allegation(s) may be Unfounded, etc., the investigation may uncover a violation of serious nature unrelated to the original complaint, in which case disciplinary action should be recommended for the other violation.

Example: Allegation No. 1. Unfounded

Allegation No. 2. Not Sustained Other violation: Sustained-Violation of Rule 26, Failure to provide the Department with a current address and telephone number, in that the accused related in his statement that he had moved and obtained a new telephone number and he had failed to provide this information to the Department.

SUMMARY OF PREVIOUS DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS and RECORD OF PREVIOUS COMPLIMENTARY HISTORY
IN SUSTAINED CASES ONLY, copies of the accused member's Summary of Previous Disciplinary Actions and Record of Previous Complimentary History will be included as attachments to the final investigation report. Refer to the General Order entitled "Complaint and Disciplinary Procedures."

5. RECOMMENDATION FOR DISCIPLINARY ACTION

One (overall) recommendation for disciplinary action will be made by the investigator. The recommendation will be for all sustained findings;
recommendations will not be made for each sustained allegation

Examples: 1. Violation noted, no disciplinary action warranted.
2. That the accused member be reprimanded.
3. That the accused member be suspended for days
4. That the accused member be separated from the Department.

6. DATE INITIATED: (Date complaint was received for investigation)

The investigator will initiate the Command Channel Review form (CPD-44. 113-A) by completing the Investigator section.

ALLEGATIONS:

The complaint was received at the Independent Police Review Authority on 13 July 2009 at 0842 hours, by Intake Aide Lisa Tousant, from Lieutenant John Andrews. It is alleged that on 13 July 2009, at approximately 0637 hours, at [REDACTED] W. Fillmore St., the accused, Officer Maurice Anderson:

- 1) engaged in an unjustified physical altercation with Officer Sharita Lewis-Anderson in that he punched her on the chest, neck, back and/or struck her on the face.

It is also alleged that on 13 July 2009, between 0330 and 0500 hours, at [REDACTED] S. Cregier, Officer Maurice Anderson:

- 2) removed Officer Sharita Lewis-Anderson's duty weapon, money and/or car keys from the residence without authorization;
- 3) left three minor children without care and adult supervision; and
- 4) brought discredit upon the Department in that he was arrested for Theft and for Contributing to the Neglect of a Child.

It is further alleged that on 13 July 2009, at approximately 0637 hours, at [REDACTED] W. Fillmore St., the accused, Officer Sharita Lewis-Anderson:

- 1) engaged in an unjustified physical altercation with Officer Maurice Anderson in that she punched him on the head and/or struck him on the face;
- 2) attempted to prevent Officer Maurice Anderson from reporting the incident; and
- 3) brought discredit upon the Department in that she was arrested for Domestic Battery.

Sergeant G.T. Murphy, in his Initiation Report, related that on 13 July 2009, he responded to a request for a supervisor at Homan Square for a domestic disturbance between two officers. Sgt. Murphy spoke with Officer Sharita Lewis-Anderson who related that she left her husband, Officer Maurice Anderson, at home asleep in the basement. At approximately 0330 hours, she received a phone call from Officer Anderson inquiring about her whereabouts and who she was "out screwing." Officer Anderson then told Officer Lewis-Anderson, "Try going to work without your gun." Officer Lewis-Anderson went to Homan Square to get her car keys and gun from her husband. When she asked for her keys and gun, Officer Anderson "got crazy" and punched his wife on the chest and struck her on the face.

Sgt. Murphy spoke with Officer Maurice Anderson who related that he woke up at 0315 hours and discovered that his wife was not home. He called Officer Lewis-Anderson on her cell phone and the two of them exchanged words. Officer Anderson then left the residence to go and work out at Homan Square. Upon his arrival at approximately 0400 hours, Officer Anderson called Officer Lewis-Anderson to see if she was at home with the children. The next time he saw her was at the men's locker room at Homan Square. A verbal altercation became physical when Officer Lewis-Anderson struck her husband on the face with something in her hand. Officer Anderson pushed past his wife to obtain police assistance. (Att. #4)

Sergeant John Spellman of the Internal Affairs Division, in his Synoptic Report, related essentially the same information as already outlined in Sgt. Murphy's Initiation Report. Additionally, Sgt. Spellman, at the direction of ADS Brust, relieved Officer Lewis-Anderson of her police powers. (Att. #5)

Sergeant Joseph Stehlik of the Internal Affairs Division, in his Synoptic Report, related that at the direction of ADS Brust, Officer Maurice Anderson would be relieved of his police powers. (Att. #6)

Lieutenant John Andrews, in his Domestic Battery Involving Department Members Report, related basically the same information already outlined in the above-captioned reports. Additionally, Lt. Andrews indicated that Officer Maurice Anderson sustained a small laceration to the top of his forehead and swelling to the right side of his face underneath his eye. Officer Anderson refused medical treatment. Officer Lewis-Anderson sustained redness/swelling to the top of her chest area and was transported by ambulance to [REDACTED] where she was treated and released.

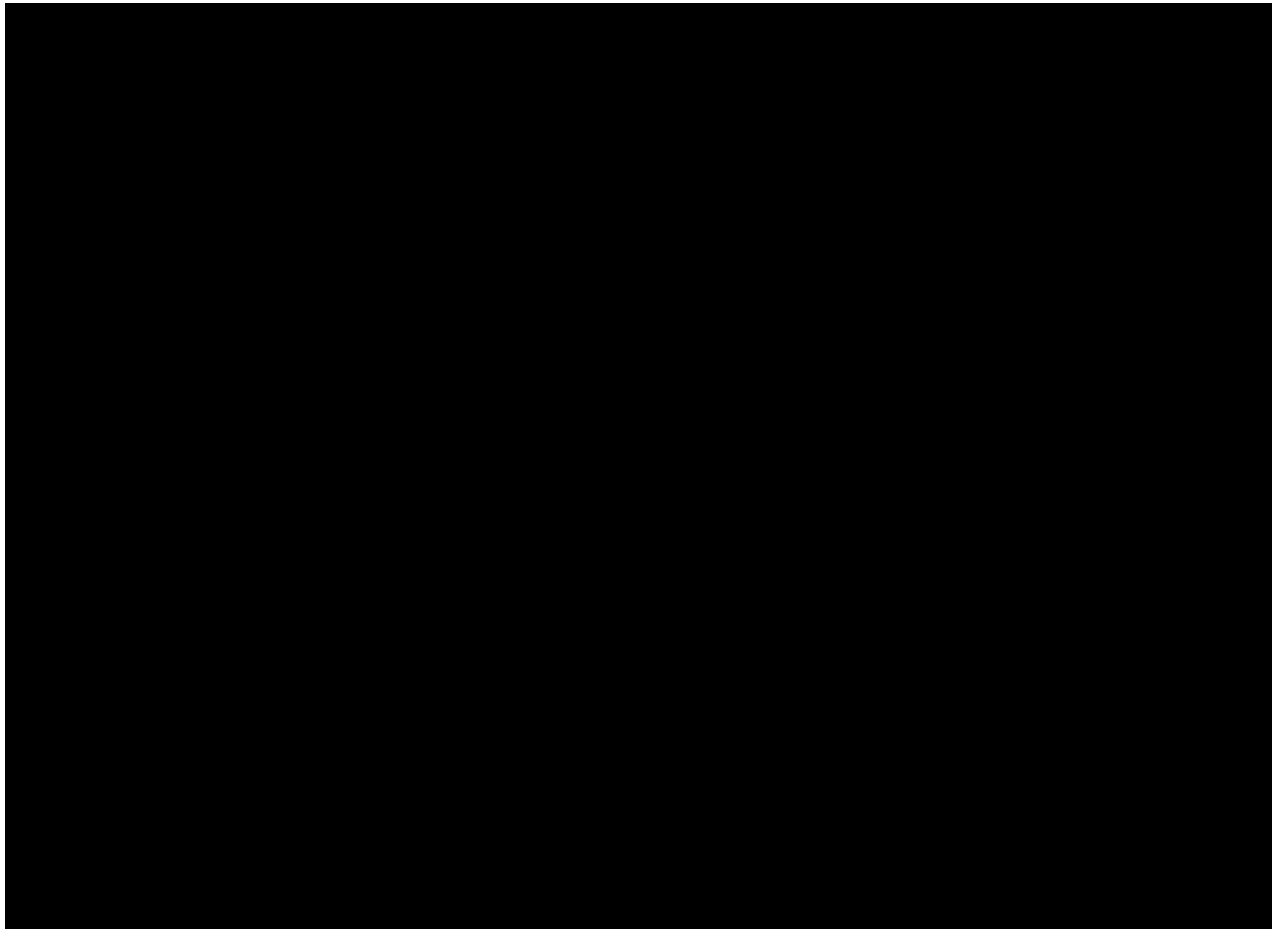

Lt. Andrews further reported that Lt. Richard Cap and Sgt. Gerald Murphy escorted Officer Anderson to his personal vehicle to search for the weapon that Officer Lewis-Anderson alleged that he took from their residence. Lt. Cap searched the entire vehicle and did not locate the weapon.

Both Officer Anderson and Officer Lewis-Anderson requested to pursue criminal prosecution. It was determined that Officer Lewis-Anderson was the aggressor in this incident in that she entered the men's locker room at the Homan Square Facility and initiated a confrontation with Officer Anderson. Officer Lewis-Anderson was subsequently charged with misdemeanor Domestic Battery. (Att. #7)

The Arrest Report for Officer Lewis-Anderson indicates that on 13 July 2009, at 1030 hours, at [REDACTED] W. Fillmore St., she was arrested on a signed complaint by her husband, Officer Anderson for Domestic Battery. Officer Anderson reported that his wife struck him on the face and head with an unknown object. Police personnel observed a small laceration to the top of Officer Anderson's forehead and bruising and redness to the area underneath his right eye. The narrative further indicates that Officer Lewis-Anderson sustained a punch to her chest during the altercation. (Att. #10)

The Arrest Report for Officer Anderson indicates that on 13 July 2009, at 1945 hours, at Area Four, he was arrested and charged with Theft and three counts of Contributing to the Neglect of a Child. The children- ages 10, 6, and 3 years old were alleged to have been left alone without care and adult supervision. (Att. #11)

The narrative of the Case Report contains information which indicates that ten-year-old [REDACTED] witnessed Officer Anderson remove a case, known to contain the duty firearm belonging to Officer Lewis-Anderson, from her bedroom. Officer Lewis-Anderson related that Officer Anderson subsequently told her in a phone conversation, "Try going to work without your gun." Officer Anderson told Officer Lewis-Anderson that he was at Homan Square and if she wanted her weapon that she "could come and get it." (Att. #13)

[REDACTED]

In an interview with IPRA, witness [REDACTED] stated that he has known Officer Lewis-Anderson for more than ten years and he is her god-brother. In the early morning hours of 13 July 2009, [REDACTED] called Officer Lewis-Anderson and asked if he could talk to her because he was having some issues with his wife. [REDACTED] drove to Officer Lewis-Anderson's home, picked her up and the two of them drove around looking for a Dunkin Donuts so they could sit and talk. While inside [REDACTED] vehicle, Officer Lewis-Anderson received a call on her cell phone. [REDACTED] could hear a lot of yelling through the phone. Officer Lewis-Anderson put the call on speaker phone and [REDACTED] heard a male voice, whom he believed to be Officer Anderson "going off." The man on the phone said, "Bitch, I've got your gun! Come and get it. I'm at Homan Square!" Officer Lewis-Anderson became very upset while saying, "I can't work. I'm in trouble without my gun." Officer Lewis-Anderson said she was going to Homan Square and she and [REDACTED] drove to Homan Square. Once they arrived at Homan Square, Officer Lewis-Anderson exited the vehicle with [REDACTED] keys while he waited inside the car.

Approximately 35-40 minutes later, [REDACTED] received a call on his cell phone from Officer Lewis-Anderson saying that Officer Anderson had jumped on her and that she was in an ambulance. She told him to come and get his car keys. [REDACTED] went to the ambulance, got his car keys from Officer Lewis-Anderson and followed them to the hospital. Once inside the hospital, he saw Officer Lewis-Anderson crying and holding her chest. She said Officer Anderson had beaten her up. (Att. #53)

In an interview at IPRA on 10 June 2010, Officer Sharita Lewis-Anderson related that she and Officer Maurice Anderson are legally married, estranged, but were residing in the same house on the date of this incident. On 13 July 2009, some time after midnight, Officer Lewis-Anderson left her home to meet with [REDACTED] because he was having some personal issues and she was worried about him. Officer Lewis-Anderson left Officer Anderson and her three children, ages ten, six, and three years old sleeping at home. Officer Lewis-Anderson said she did not inform Officer Anderson that she was leaving the house, but she has left the children in his care in the past. Officer Lewis-Anderson further explained that some time during the night, she summoned her ex-husband, [REDACTED] to sit outside her residence "for safety reasons" while she was gone due to the "unpredictability" of Officer Anderson.

Officer Lewis-Anderson further related that she received a phone call from Officer Anderson between 0330 and 0500 hours stating that he had her duty weapon. He told her that if she wanted her gun, she could come and get it and he was at Homan Square. Officer Lewis-Anderson also received calls from [REDACTED] who told her that Officer Anderson had taken her gun box and that he was outside calling her names.

Officer Lewis-Anderson went home, accompanied by [REDACTED] to look for her gun. [REDACTED] was at the house with the children as Officer Lewis-Anderson had instructed. [REDACTED] and Officer Lewis-Anderson re-traced Officer Anderson's steps in search of her gun. Officer Lewis-Anderson said she kept her gun in a lock box on the side of her bed and was unable to locate it. [REDACTED] told Officer Lewis-Anderson that Officer Anderson had the gun box in his hand when he left the house.

Officer Lewis-Anderson, accompanied by [REDACTED] drove to Homan Square. [REDACTED] remained in the car while Officer Lewis-Anderson went to the men's locker room. She stood in the doorway as Officer Anderson stood at the sink brushing his teeth. Officer Lewis-Anderson asked him where her gun was. Officer Anderson ranted and called Officer Lewis-Anderson names. She asked him, "Dude, give me my gun?" She also told him that she was going to call a supervisor. Officer Anderson said, "Disrespect me again Sharita." Officer Lewis-Anderson repeated what she had just said. Officer Anderson then struck Officer Lewis-Anderson on the face, on the neck and on the back. Officer Anderson struck her on her chest and she fell backwards. Officer Lewis-Anderson tried to pick up her cell phone and house keys which she had dropped, and the two of them struggled over her phone. Officer Anderson struck Officer Lewis-Anderson with his fist and with his open hand. Officer Lewis-Anderson said she was trying to fight Officer Anderson off and block his strikes and did not strike him intentionally.

Officer Lewis-Anderson further related that once she exited the men's locker room area, she stopped by the side of a wall and held her chest. She saw Officer Anderson talking to a female, so Officer Lewis-Anderson went to the guard booth and asked for assistance. Officer Lewis-Anderson sustained bruises to her chest, neck, face and back. An ambulance was summoned and she was treated and released at [REDACTED] Hospital.

Upon further inquiry, Officer Lewis-Anderson said she did not call the police to report her gun was missing because she was embarrassed and believed that Officer Anderson was going to return it. Officer Lewis-Anderson advised that she believed Officer Anderson took her gun to get her in trouble. She said her gun was never recovered and she had to purchase a new one.

Officer Lewis-Anderson was found Not Guilty for Domestic Battery during a bench trial. (Atts. #62&72)

Evidence Technician photographs taken of Officer Lewis-Anderson revealed redness to her chest. (Att. #41)

The medical record from Mount Sinai Medical Center indicates that on 13 July 2009, at 0711 hours, Officer Lewis-Anderson was transported to the Emergency Room via ambulance. Officer Lewis-Anderson told hospital personnel that her husband had hit her on the chest, face and head with his fist. Officer Lewis-Anderson's diagnosis was mild redness and bruising to her chest and facial trauma. (Att. #67)

In a To/From Report, witness Officer Janeit Dinkha related that on 13 July 2009, at approximately 0610 hours, she was notified that there was a domestic in the men's locker room. A few seconds later, Officer Lewis-Anderson arrived at the guard shack window and stated that her husband, Officer Maurice Anderson, punched her in the chest and she needed to go to the hospital. Officer Dinkha observed redness to Officer Lewis-Anderson's chest. (Att. #8)

[REDACTED]

Officer Anderson waited around for approximately fifteen minutes assuming that Officer Lewis-Anderson was on her way home since she knew that Officer Anderson had to leave. Officer Anderson called his wife at 0437 hours from Homan Square and asked again where she was. Officer Lewis-Anderson hung up on him. Officer Lewis-Anderson went to Homan Square into the men's locker room and told Officer Anderson that she followed him there because she believed he was seeing another woman. Officer Anderson told his wife that she needed to leave and if she did not, he was going to call a car [the police]. Officer Anderson walked toward the door to leave the locker room and Officer Lewis-Anderson blocked the doorway. Officer Anderson tried to walk around his wife and told her more than twice to get out of the doorway. Officer Lewis-Anderson then struck Officer Anderson on the head with an unknown silver object. She also punched him on the face near his right eye. Officer Anderson punched his wife once on the chest and she fell to the floor. Officer Anderson went to a land line phone and tried to call the police. Officer Lewis-Anderson pushed the button down twice and then knocked the receiver out of his hand. Officer Anderson walked away and saw an unknown female and asked her to call a car. A short while later, a Sergeant and two officers responded. Officer Anderson was taken to the 011th district station and Officer Lewis-Anderson was transported to the hospital.

Upon further inquiry, Officer Anderson said he did not know why [REDACTED] obtained an Order of Protection against him because he had not seen him for several months and whenever they saw one another they were cordial.

Officer Anderson believed he had a close relationship with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] had asked if could call Officer Anderson "Dad." [REDACTED] later gave Officer Anderson a thank you card for allowing him to call him Dad. Officer Anderson speculated that [REDACTED] told the police that Officer Anderson took his mother's gun because she put him up to it.

Officer Anderson denied that he took Officer Lewis-Anderson's gun, cash and/or car keys. He also denied that he struck his wife more than once during the altercation.

The charges of contributing to the neglect of minor children and theft were Nolle Prosequi against Officer Anderson. (Att. #46,47,68)

Evidence Technician photographs taken of Officer Anderson revealed a minor injury to the top of his forehead. (Att. #40)

In a To/From Report, witness Detective Denise Troche related that on 13 July 2009, she was in the gym looking for missing equipment when she was approached by a male Department member, dressed only in a towel. The male was accompanied by a civilian dressed female, now known as Officer Lewis-Anderson. The male asked for a cell phone to call a car. Det. Troche told the male that she did not have a cell phone. The male, who seemed to be distraught, asked that a car be summoned. Det. Troche then went to the duty desk and asked desk personnel to call a car because there was a disturbance in the gym. (Att. #9)

CONCLUSION:

The Reporting Investigator recommends that Allegation #1 against Officer Maurice Anderson that he engaged in an unjustified physical altercation with his estranged wife, Officer Sharita Lewis-Anderson be Sustained. Officer Lewis-Anderson stated that Officer Anderson punched her about the face, chest, neck and back during this incident. Officer Anderson admitted that he punched his wife on the chest and stated that he did so to defend himself. Medical evidence of injury to Officer Lewis-Anderson indicates that she sustained trauma to her face as well as to her chest. The evidence garnered in this investigation revealed that Officer Anderson and Officer Lewis-Anderson were mutual combatants in this incident. Neither Officer Anderson nor Officer Lewis-Anderson should have allowed a verbal altercation rise to a physical altercation. As such, there is a preponderance of evidence to prove this allegation against Officer Anderson.

Officer Anderson's account that his wife went to Homan Square's gym because she accused him of seeing another woman is incredible. By his own admission, Officer Anderson stated that he had been working out at the gym for a few months prior to this incident. In contrast, it is unreasonable to believe that Officer Lewis-Anderson would choose to follow her husband to Homan Square and accuse him of infidelity on the same day that her gun was missing. Officer Lewis-Anderson's account that her gun was missing is credible and is supported by [REDACTED] version of the events. As such, this allegation is Sustained.

The Reporting Investigator recommends that Allegation #3 that Officer Maurice Anderson left three minor children without care and adult supervision be Unfounded. Officer Anderson called Officer Lewis-Anderson and told her that he was going to work out and then report for his tour of duty. Officer Lewis-Anderson knew that Officer Anderson was leaving before she returned home because she had made arrangements for her ex-husband, [REDACTED] to stay with the children once Officer Anderson left the residence. As such, this allegation did not occur as alleged and should be Unfounded.

The Reporting Investigator recommends that Allegation #1 that Officer Sharita Lewis-Anderson engaged in an unjustified physical altercation with Officer Maurice Anderson in that she punched him on the head and /or struck him on the face be Sustained. Officer Lewis-Anderson stated that she only struck Officer Anderson after he struck her. The evidence shows that Officer Anderson sustained a minor injury to his head and an injury to his eye. Although the police arrested only Officer Lewis-Anderson for Battery, this investigation revealed that Officer Anderson and Officer Lewis-Anderson were mutual combatants during this incident. Again, neither Officer Lewis-Anderson nor Officer Anderson should have allowed a verbal altercation to escalate into a physical altercation. As such, this allegation will be Sustained.

The Reporting Investigator recommends that Allegation #2 that Officer Sharita Lewis-Anderson attempted to prevent Officer Maurice Anderson from reporting the incident be Not Sustained. There are no witnesses to support this claim and Officer Lewis-Anderson denied the allegation. As such, there is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

The Reporting Investigator recommends that Allegation #3 that Officer Sharita Lewis-Anderson brought discredit upon the Department in that she was arrested for Domestic Battery be Sustained. Officer Lewis-Anderson was a mutual combatant in an unjustified physical altercation with Officer Anderson. The choices that Officer Lewis-Anderson made in her attempt to resolve the issue and recover her weapon, resulted in her getting arrested and charged with Domestic Battery. Her actions and subsequent consequences did bring discredit upon the Department.

FINDINGS:

Accused: Officer Maurice Anderson, Star #11348, Unit 003/045

Allegation #1 Sustained – Violation of Rule 8, “Disrespect to or maltreatment of any person, while on or off duty,” in that on 13 July 2009, at approximately 0637 hours, at [REDACTED] W.
